BIO

Yuliia Shynkarenko is a Dublin-based Ukrainian actor and singer with a growing portfolio across film, television, and live performance. Her recent film credits include Olena in "Divorce During the War" (dir. Andrius Blazelevicius) and Dasha in "Life on Mercury" (dir. Mathieu Constantin), where she portrayed emotionally layered characters in dramatic storylines. Yuliia is currently pursuing a degree in Music Theater at American Dublin College and has completed acting and musical theatre training at the Gaiety School of Acting. Her skill set includes singing and a broad range of dance styles such as salsa, bachata, swing, and tap. She is fluent in English, Ukrainian, and Russian, with additional language skills in Italian and Spanish. She also has vast experience in screen combat and martial arts (kickboxing, jiu-jitsu, krav maga, MMA) as well as various other sports. Driven by a strong passion for combat training, Yuliia is eager to bring her dynamic energy and versatility to new film projects—especially those that are physically demanding or offer the chance to explore complex villain roles. She is committed to ongoing training and creative growth and looks forward to future opportunities to further showcase her talents.
