BIO

Jade is originally from County Wicklow in Ireland; she has performed in a number of film and theatre productions over the past few years. A few of her early theatre roles include "Elena" in "The Bear" performed at the Samuel Beckett Theatre, "Thyona" in Big Love produced by Sugarglass Theatre Company, and "Jenny" in Mr. Burns at the Player's Theatre Dublin. She has also performed three years in a row at the Irish Student Drama Awards where she was nominated as "Best Actress" for her role as "Anne" in the play "What Every Girl Should Know". Jade has also been in an Improvisational comedy group "Improv She Wrote" where she has performed at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival for three consecutive years.

After graduating with an honors degree in Theatre and Films studies at Trinity College Dublin. Jade then went on to complete her training at Bow Street Academy for Film acting. She has since been in several short films, music videos and the Irish TV series "Fair City" where she played the role of "Michelle Montgomery" for 18 episodes last year.
